NOTICE OF REGISTRATION OF NEW CORPORATE NAME

On March 15, 1998, SunAir Express, Inc., a commuter air carrier,<sup>1</sup> requested that the Department accept the registration of its new corporate name, Sunrise Airlines, Inc. In support of its request, the applicant provided a copy of its amended articles of incorporation as evidence that its corporate name had been officially changed, and copies of its amended OST Forms 4507 (commuter air carrier registration) and 6410 (certificate of liability insurance) reflecting its new name.

Part 215 of the Department's regulations provides that before any commuter air carrier may conduct operations using a name or trade name, it must first register that name with the Department. The rule further states that the Department may acknowledge the registration of such name after receiving evidence of the registrant's notification to similarly named carriers of its proposed use of the name. In this case, the carriers identified by the Department that have registered similar names or trade names are Air Sunshine, Inc.; Express Air, Inc. d/b/a Sunrise Airlines; Sun Country Airlines, Inc.; Sun Jet International, Inc.; Sun Pacific International, Inc.; and Sunworld International Airlines, Inc. The registrant has provided copies of its notifications to the above-named carriers.<sup>2</sup>

Since all of the requirements of Part 215 have been met, we acknowledge the registration by SunAir Express, Inc., of the new corporate name Sunrise Airlines, Inc., as evidenced by this notice and transmittal to the carrier of its approved commuter registration in the new name.

Dated at Washington, D.C., April 2, 1999.
